How we need to pray

"To see these young women coming, weeping, life before them. They're at the crossroad. They're a victim of circumstances. What... Do you realize, old men, when we were boys, our boys have got ten times the temptation that we had? Sister, do you realise that your daughter has ten times the temptation you had when you were a girl? What will her daughter have?

Look at the things, the pictures the devil's a painting. Oh, how we need to pray. Now, we'll go back to you again. Brother, do you realize we don't pray half as much as our fathers did? Pastors, do you know we don't put as much time on our knees as the pastors before us did? Women, do you realize you don't instruct your daughter and pray with her at night like your mother did you? Then what about it? Who's guilty? We're guilty. There's no way around it; we're guilty. I'm guilty. I'm guilty of not doing the job of God like I should do. I'm confessing it that I'm wrong. I'm asking God to be merciful to me. I look out here and see the opportunities I've missed because of petty things, little old insufficient things that didn't mean nothing. I'm ashamed of myself as a Gospel minister before you. I repent before God and ask God to forgive me and the church to forgive me for being so dilatory about the work of God."

A BLUSHING PROPHET 56-1125E

From behind the Editor's Desk

Greetings, Saints. Our first Believers Newsletter for 2012. Did we think we would get to this date? No, we couldn't see it. But, praise the Lord, we can still work in His Vineyard, and we are starting this year with a concern for the Mission Field.

We saw how the Lord helped in Vanuatu, last month; with the preparation of the Convention; the weather [!] – that blessed us – and we are told that we will be getting more stories of God's help on that occasion, which we will put in the next month's Issue. Praise the Lord.

Shortly, Bro. Derrick Donaldson and Bro. Adrian Gray will be heading back to P.N.G. to help extend the outreach work there and to support those responsible for that work.

Also, Bro. Adrian will soon be heading for New Caledonia with

Bro. Alex Hoarau, a French brother from Reunion Island, to see if the Message can be set up there. One thing is for sure, we are at the closing of days and our Brothers have their sleeves rolled up while the doors are still open.

I am sure any offers to assist with the cost of these visits would be much appreciated. You can contact Bro. Adrian Gray: Beulah@inspire.net.nz or 586 Beaconsfield Road, Stratford, Taranaki.

And those faithful ones who have already helped and made the previous work in God's vineyard, possible, a big 'thank you.' The Reports that we are looking forward to publish next month will certainly make it known that your giving has not been in vain and the proof of that will be 'fruit born'. Glory!

Our Committee members, Bros. Bruce, Adrian and Malcolm, join with me in wishing you God's blessing in the 'Shelter of His Wings'.

Brother Charles - Editor

Wishing you God's blessings for the New Year.
Be encouraged in God's sovereign Plan for you.

"Have you ever come to the place in life where Christ meant more to you than all the arguing you could do about your church? Has Christ meant more to you than all the world? I don't mean from an emotion or a mental work-up;

I mean – from the depths of your heart, that something's settled in there, that something's taken place, that you don't know how it came, but you're hid away, and your whole motive is to serve Jesus Christ. Have you entered that place, my dear brother? Have you come into that place where you don't care what anyone says – not to go out and act smart - but till the love of God is so anchored into you, that you can't see anything else. You're whole motive is to do the will of God, love for everybody, flowing free from everywhere? What a place to live. That's the hidden place. That's the place where we have got to come to, my brethren. That's the place where God reveals His secret things. That's the place where God does the placing and the calling." William Branham

Sent from Bro. Harold and Sister Ernestine Beckett, Cape Town, South Africa

Bro. Howard Searle and Pastor Derrick Donaldson are photographed together after a Sunday morning meeting, when Bro. Howard was invited to give a message. At the end of his message, 'Redeeming the end of time', a number of young people went forward for prayer.

The South Pacific Convention

II CORINTHIANS 11:2

2 For I am jealous over you with godly jealousy: for I have espoused you to one husband, that I may present [you as] a chaste virgin to Christ.

You hear in life the clichés that “it can’t be done”, “it’s never been done before” or “it won’t work”. These were the kind of attitudes that had to be pushed to the side in order that the South Pacific Convention could materialize.

One year ago Bro’ Paul Hinge from north Pentecost Island in Vanuatu was visiting our church in New Zealand and stayed at my home for two days. We decided to plan a convention in Vanuatu using his church as the host for meetings that would benefit the Saints in these remote islands in the Pacific. The odds were against us right from the start but I felt that it was the Lord’s will so we set this as a vision before us to walk into. The Saints on north Pentecost went to work immediately to plant their taros and other vegetables and then clear the grounds for building apartments for foreign visitors to stay in. January can be a fickle time of the year where heavy rains can cause havoc with transportation, and plane flights and ships have to be booked to correspond with the dates set for the meetings. Invitations were sent out through the BNL early so that foreign visitors could plan to have time off work and flights booked at a time of the year which is busy with tourists. I visited the convention site in November to check up on the progress of the buildings going up and was enthused by the quality of workmanship that had been put into the construction of the apartments and the overall planning expertise that the brethren had manifested.

Here it is. It COULD be DONE! the precious Saints gathering together at the Meeting Place where they fellowshiped with our precious Lord.

When putting the photograph on to this page, we looked for the inclement heavy rain, but didn't see any - only a beautiful fine day and blue sky above the Meeting Place where our dear Lord Jesus gave His Word for His Bride!

Our God is going to find His Bride – She is SPECIAL to Him. – Ed.

When we all arrived in January, we were ushered into a freshly finished village of ten new apartments, a new kitchen and dining area: a new toilet & shower facility. The apartments were a mixture of double and single beds and bunk huts made out of bush materials. The sisters prepared our meals for us and I wish to thank them for the time they put into this task.

My desire was always to lift up the ministries that the Lord has within a nation and promote them before their own people and place less emphasis on foreign ministries. So half of the preaching at the convention was done by four of the native ministers and the other half by Bro. Johnny Dimov of Australia, Bro. Malcolm Ferris and Bro. Adrian Gray of N.Z.

There were a total of 17 meetings over the 6 days. I also wish to thank Bro Renato Zanoli and Bro' Jerry Sellers for their huge contribution to the success of meetings also. The numbers that attended the meetings was in the vicinity of 200 – 250. Anything more would have placed a lot of pressure on the supply of food.

W h a t stood out in these meetings was the extremely h i g h quality preaching and the depth of revelation from the local ministers which I rate as being on par with the best anywhere. My special thanks go to all the ministers foreign and local that blended in together to make these meetings a real success.

We had ten visitors from Australia, nine from New Zealand and two from the USA as well as many from the outer islands. The compatibility was a pleasure to watch with everybody mixing with each other, helping and encouraging each other.

The maturity of the Saints in Vanuatu and the their local ministry can be gauged by what they are planning for the future from amongst themselves. The Vanuatu ministers sat down together and have decided on another convention at the end of this year on Santo Island. They have also planned a youth meeting in August on north Ambrym Island.

Our special thanks goes to Bro' Paul Hinge for setting in motion the hard work that made our time together with the brethren so successful.

There was a time when Vanuatu needed a lot of missionary work, but that time has come to an end. The Bride in this nation belongs to the Lord and it is not the place of any missionary, minister or any church to laud themselves over their fellow brethren.

Apostle Paul set out to prepare a people as a chaste virgin to Christ, not to preach another Jesus and not for them to receive another man's spirit. Please pray that this purity remains in this nation.

Further reports will be made in next month's edition of the BNL.

Shalom.

Bro' Adrian Gray

New Zealand.

The Supernatural in Your Life

Brother Jeff Jenkins

The Supernatural in your life. Now when I quote that, some of you might say- what supernatural? There is a realm of sensitivity that belongs to you. But it'll only be found in prayer. Everything that you need as a believer, if you are born again and Spirit filled, begins with prayer. Brother Branham said 'don't even open your Bible until you've first prayed, because,' he said, 'you cannot read this like you read a newspaper. You need the Holy Spirit to teach you spiritual things. And the purpose of prayer is to get your human spirit and body subject to the very Spirit of Christ.'

That takes some time and some doing. You can't just enter into that casually. I don't think we should ever enter into the presence of God casually. I believe that the Word of God is the presence of God, so that if I am going to enter into the presence of God, I should not enter into it casually. I should be in the Spirit. I should be in the Spirit of the Lord. I should be led by the Holy Spirit - The Supernatural in your life. Now, I want you to write this down as well, because this will be a theme. Whenever we are modelling the Cross we are being led by the Spirit. Whenever we are modelling the Cross!

That is why it is important to go over the events of the Cross from time to time, to see the nature of the Holy Spirit working in Jesus' life, how that the man did not want to die. He sweat drops of blood, tremendous anguish. David, in the Spirit, spoke of the anguish that Jesus went through, more so than Jesus did. We'll read that in a moment. By modelling the cross you are automatically being led by the Spirit. Whenever you model the cross before your children, before your wife. Whenever you model the cross before your husband, whenever you live out the sacrificial life of selflessness and living for others you are always walking in the Spirit. You are being led by the Spirit, and the Spirit, when you are modelling the Cross is then speaking to lives and the Scriptures are being fulfilled.

Now, let me say that again in short. Whenever you are modelling the Cross, you are being led by the Spirit. You are speaking to lives and the Scriptures are being fulfilled. Your life is fulfilling the Word of God. You are prophecy in motion. Your life that you are living, don't ever consider it, don't relegate it to hum-drum, to ordinary, just doing what I'm supposed to do. If you are in the realm of the Spirit you will become so sensitive and aware that your daily life is Scriptures being fulfilled. You are prophecy being fulfilled.

The Bible says that the Bible was not written by men that were naturally minded, but Holy men, under the anointing of the Holy Spirit wrote the Word of God. Most of the time it was men that were in duress, distress, anguish, prison, in a cave somewhere when the Bible was written.

Most of it was not written in Kings palaces or in beautiful homes. Many authors today get away from the humdrum and they get away to the mountains to write their book. They seek a little cabin by a lake somewhere and they write their book.

That was not the case for Jeremiah; that was not the case for Moses; that was not the case for David; that was not the case for Paul. 11 Peter 1:20-21 -Knowing this first, that no prophesy of the scriptures is of any private interpretation, for the prophesy came not in old time by the will of man, but holy men of God spake as they were moved by the Holy Ghost. I don't believe that the Pillar of Fire came into the room and told him "pick up your pen and write". I believe they were simply inspired and began to write.

Did you know that there were many prophets who also wrote, but they never got into the canon of Scripture? There were other prophets, and even the Bible refers to some of these prophets, but they are not in the Bible. Their books are not in the Bible because God did not ordain that those books got in the Bible. So Holy men, under the anointing of the Holy Spirit wrote the Word of God and God, supernaturally then allowed those books to singularly continue to be compiled and they never got lost in time. How many have ever lost something? How many have lost something important? I've lost sermons, that's important, but I'm one person and I lost a sermon. And yet God had these men write the Word of God and God preserved it, over thousands of years and never let it get lost and allowed it to be compiled in a Book. And you want to write a book, and look how long it has taken you to say I'm gonna write a book, and you still haven't written it.

But this is God's Book. For the prophecy came not in old time by the will of man. So the prophetic Word of God didn't come in old times by the will of man, but Holy men of God spake as they were moved by the Holy Ghost. When they were moved to speak they were scribes, and they began to write down what these Holy men were saying or perhaps when they spoke it they wrote it down themselves.

Now lets begin our thought. The Bible says that men of old spoke as they were moved by the Holy Ghost and then it was written down and now we read it. Mortals, just like you and I, wrote the Bible. Mortals that feared and worried and doubted, had struggles, married and had wives and children, took care of kids, changed diapers - mortal men and women. Isaiah burdened for Jerusalem, praying for himself and his sins and the sins of Israel, while under the anointing, said "Behold I show you a sign; A virgin shall conceive". Brother Branham said he probably put his hand over his mouth and said "What did I just say?" Logically Isaiah did not understand that what he had just said. He was being moved and anointed by the Holy Spirit. I'll read it to you.

Isaiah 7 v 13,14. And he said, Hear ye now O house of David is it a small thing for you to weary men, but will ye weary my God also? Therefore the Lord Himself shall give you a sign. Behold, a virgin shall conceive and bear a son and shall call His name Immanuel, which being interpreted is God with us.

Thousands of years, 800 years actually, circled the globe. It was never fulfilled in Isaiah's time. People could have risen up and said "Isaiah, you didn't have the mind of Christ". Many probably tried to interpret what he meant by that. Was the virgin Israel? Was it a metaphor, or was it literal? So many times it was a metaphor. So many times it had a shadow, but it had a greater meaning later, but in this case this prophecy was literal, and Isaiah, under the anointing wrote it down.

But as the prophet said, he didn't understand it himself. It never happened in his lifetime. Isaiah died, never seeing hundreds of prophesies, never seeing them fulfilled in his lifetime. Some could have said, well, Isaiah was a false prophet. But everything that he has spoken, that was written in the Word of God, it systematically came to pass, mostly in Jesus' own life and His ministry; His death, His burial and His resurrection and it's coming to pass in our lives today.

How many believe that you are going to be one of those that lie down with the lamb and with the lion? Your children will be able to play on the hole of an asp. I don't understand that, and I don't care if I don't. I just want to be there when it happens, and I don't know how literal the children's part is, it's probably a metaphor. It doesn't matter - it's going to happen. David wrote most of the Psalms while running from Saul, while in distress, while worrying about enemies. Say Amen!

He could have said, I'm really, absolutely caught up in the spirit of worry and doubt and frustration and fretting. Perhaps if you would read the Psalms that's how each one of them start out, but the longer he goes into the Psalm..., remember now, he's got one of his 400 instruments. He's playing those instruments and he's worshipping God, but he starts out saying, 'God, why have you forsaken me? Where are you? Why do my bones stare at me? Why am I going through what I am going through?' He is in perplexity, but he has no idea that while he is singing that Psalm that he is being inspired and his words are a prefigure of what is going to happen to Jesus Christ.

But he doesn't understand that he is God's supernatural person and that it's the supernatural in his life that's motivating him to sing that song, to pen those words, My God, My God, why hast thou forsaken me? He is modelling again; the picture is the Cross. Let's turn in your Bibles and look together. We'll read it in Psalm chapter 22 verse 1 To the chief musician upon Ai'jeleth Shahar, A Psalm of David. My God, My God, why hast thou forsaken me? I don't think David sat there and said, 'you know, I think that's a good tune. I like the way that is kinda flowing. That's going to be really good, write that down.' He was in anguish, just like you, just like me. He was going through doubts and worries and struggles just like you and me. He did not see Himself at that point as being inspired by the pillar of fire, by God Almighty to write this down as a prophetic message for a generation to come. He was writing it down simply to relieve himself, to get into the Spirit, and to seek God.

Psalm 22, v1: My God, my God, why hast thou forsaken me? Why art thou so far from helping me, and from the words of my roaring? (Again the picture is the cross,) v7 All they that see me laugh me to scorn, they shoot out the lip, they shake their heads saying; v8 He trusted on the LORD that he would deliver him; let him deliver him, seeing he delighted in him. v9. But thou art he who took me out of the womb; thou didst make me hope when I was upon my mother's breasts. v11. Be not far from me, for trouble is near; for there is none to help. v13. They gaped upon me with their mouths, like a ravening and a roaring lion.

v14. I am poured out like water, ~ This is Jesus. This is Jesus speaking through David. This is the Holy Spirit anointing David to write this about Christ's death. Now Jesus is in the garden. v14 I am poured out like water and all my bones are out of joint: my heart is like wax; it is melted in the midst of my bowels. You are about to be crucified. Nails put through your feet and hands, hanging on a cross ~ naked, whipped and beat so badly that you didn't look like a human being. All the beard plucked out of your face. Of course, his heart was melting like wax! But Jesus in the first person did not write this; David wrote it under the anointing of the Holy Spirit.

v15-16 My strength was dried up like a potsherd and my tongue cleaves to the roof of my jaws; and thou hast bought me into the dust of death. For dogs have compassed me; the assembly of the wicked have enclosed me; they pieced my hands and my feet. David had no idea what he was saying. I don't think he said "Stop right there, now that's good! I believe that has reference to the Messiah to come. I believe that!" He didn't do that. He was anointed. He was under the anointing of God, he was being supernaturally led, but the part I want you to catch was he didn't know it. His life was supernatural. We know it today because we have the ability to go back 2,800 years and look at his life by way of reference through a Bible, but he didn't have that option; he was merely living out his life as it was happening, had no idea that he was fulfilling the Word of God.

David was just as much a Bible character as you are a Bible character. David was fulfilling his drama for his day. You are fulfilling your drama for your day. Psalm 22 They pierced my hands and my feet. Verse 17 I may tell all my bones, they look and stare upon me. Verse 18 They parted my garments among them and cast lots upon my vesture. Verse 19. But be not thou far from me O Lord, O my strength, haste thee to help me. Verse 22 I will declare thy name unto my brethren; in the midst of the congregation will I praise thee.

These were all prophetic. That last one you say, well how was that prophetic? Well, Paul the Apostle picks it up in Hebrews doesn't he. And Paul says, David, under the anointing of the Holy Spirit said that Jesus would come and He is not ashamed to call them brethren. So Paul, under the anointing of the Holy Spirit goes back, reads the Psalm and says, wait a minute, that refers to the Church today, that Jesus, the Son of God is not afraid to call us kinsfolk.

So an anointed man almost a thousand years later Paul writes of David and says that it refers to our day. That's Hebrews chapter 2 verse 11 and 12. My God, My God, why hast thou forsaken me? My bones, they stare at me. They pierced my hands and my feet. They parted my garments and cast lots for my vesture.

Do you suppose that David then dropped his harp, ran to tell the world that he was just anointed to prophesy about the Messiah? No! He didn't know that what he was doing was Biblical. He didn't know that it would be put into spiritual cannon of the Word of God and that thousands and millions and billions of people will read it. Had he known he would not have been walking by faith, there you are. But he didn't know, David didn't know that it was prophetic. David didn't know that he was moved of God to speak about Christ's crucifixion David, listen, watch the atmosphere; he was in prayer, he was making music, he was meditating, he was needy, he was seeking God and in that atmosphere he became inspired by God to write a Psalm. You say, 'Brother Jeff, can we duplicate that?' That's what I'm trying to tell you. You are just as much a prophetic people as David was. You are just as much a Bible character as David was. You are just as much a part of the Book, and came out of this Book as David did, as Moses and Abraham. You are just as much written epistles read and known of all men as those men were as well.

You are this Book made flesh!

An excerpt from Bro. Jeff Jenkin's Message, delivered on the 13th September 2009

A Contented Man's Shirt

There is a story told of a king who was suffering from a painful ailment, whose astrologer told him that the only cure for him was to find a contented man, get his shirt, and wear it night and day.

So messengers were sent through the king's realm in search of such a man, with orders to bring back his shirt.

Months passed, and after a thorough search of the country, the messengers returned, but without the shirt.

"Did you find a contented man in all my realm?" the king asked.

"Yes, O king, we found one, just one in all thy realm," they replied.

"Then, why did you not bring back his shirt?" the king demanded.

"Master, the man had no shirt," was the answer.

Get the Entire Message and Bible on iPod

Our purpose is to make the message more easily accessible to anyone desiring to listen to the audio sermons of the prophet. iPods are by far the easiest and most convenient way to do this.

We realised that it is often hard for people to switch over to this new technology, so that is why we are proposing to offer this service through the BNL to anyone that would like the message put on their iPod or mp3 player.

We will download onto your iPod the complete message with the bible and many other wonderful related audio readings including films of the prophet etc, and then all you will have to do is simply press the play button and start listening.

For some of us who find it a little harder to learn new gadgets, we will do the entire loading for you and also provide you with simple instructions on how to operate your iPod if you don't already know.

Having the message and Audio Bible on my Classic 160GB iPod was by far the best thing I have ever invested in, I would like to personally encourage anyone who hasn't an iPod with the message and Bible on it to invest in one of these great little tools, you can play them through your car stereo player, home sound system, or just listen with headphones.

If you are thinking of buying an iPod for us to load the message on to, then please remember it is preferred that you have at least an 80GB, we recommend the iPod "Classic"

(pictured), either 80GB, 120GB, or 160GB, we can still fit the message on to an iPod or mp3 player as low as a 16GB but the sound quality (although still very satisfactory) will be slightly less and this is not as desirable.

If you would like to take advantage of this free service then please send your iPod, iPhone, or mp3 player to the address below with your complete return address and contact details, and please make sure it is well packaged and is posted with tracking.

God Bless, and happy listening,

Brother Dean Gilchrist.

Let brotherly love continue (Heb 13:1)

~Easter Convention 2012~

God bless you.

We, the believers of Rapturing Faith Believers Fellowship, would like to greet every brother and sister in the Precious Name of Jesus Christ, whom to know is Life eternal. This is a follow up notification concerning the Easter meetings we are planning. Our purpose for the meetings is based on the above scripture and a quote from brother Branham:

61-0316 THE CHURCH CHOOSING LAW FOR GRACE_ MIDDLETOWN. ON THURSDAY

Remember the other brother's pulling for some cover too. The blanket's big enough for both of you. God made it that way. Don't jerk it all and wrap yourself up in it and say, "Freeze to death." If you're cold, let me help you. When it comes to a place you don't want to help a fallen brother... You think he's fallen, help him some way; stand between the gaps. Gap up the way with love. That's the cement that puts the church of God together, is the cement of God's holy love among brothers. "This will all men know you're My disciples" when you belong to the Assemblies? "All men know you're My disciples when..." 'cause you're Oneness, cause you're Church of God? "This will all man know you're My disciples when you have love one for the other." That's when they--we'll know; that's when the world will know that we're Christians. That's when the world will know that we're brethren and sisters, when we have love one for another. That's the mark of Christianity, is love one for another. When we get that, then God will begin to work among us and bring us milk, honey, great things. Why, it's good when we find what God's plan is and move into it.

Meetings are scheduled for: Friday, 6th April – Sunday, 8th April 2012

Venue: Titirangi War Memorial, Titirangi Auckland

Please be aware that we will not be providing accommodation, but will provide a list of motels and camp sites in close proximity.

We are still in the process of formalising the ministers of which will be both local and overseas.

A formal invitation will follow shortly once we have finalized all the plans.

Please keep us in your prayers.

Pastor Freddy Esau
