From Andy's Desk

Greetings fellow saints: With this issue being the last for the year (due to the holiday season), I would like to take the opportunity to express our thanksgiving for all of your support and prayers over the last year. I would also like to thank the BNL team for their every effort in working together to bring a blessing to all.

It has been great to receive your feedback and contribution to the content and material contained in the BNL. The Lord is certainly doing wonderful things both in and amongst His Bride. We are witnessing a real shift in the atmosphere of the fellowship worldwide. I believe we have 'turned a corner' and are witnessing the Divine Love Capstone of Christ now becoming flesh in the Bride in a greater way than ever before. It's Jubilee time!

Think about this: the Seed laid out by the prophet has had 50 years to come into manifestation in the "ground" of the Church. A tree can grow a lot in 50 years! The 'maturing harvest' is manifesting forth God's Agape Love and is expressed both in word and in works. Time tells the quality of the Seed sown...

My exhortation (as we come into this higher realm of Love) is:

Let us be very sure that we (believers, ministers, leaders, parents, friends, students, disciples, assemblies) would give our utmost to nurture and encourage the manifestation of the various gifts in the body both locally, nationally, and internationally, from the ministry of helps, mercy and healing to the preaching of the Word, and each gift in between.

The preaching of the Word will raise an army from a pile of dry bones, to a people who know who they are. Furthermore, the Spirit of prophecy will positionally place them in the Body to become fully operational for the glory of God. Without fear, let us always be ready to encourage the ministries that God raises up and give them a place to be expressed freely under the liberty of God's Spirit. The benefits of "every joint supplying" are exponential!

Jesus Himself is bringing every part of each assembly to their position, He is showing how every person has a purpose and calling to fulfil. A healthy assembly and a healthy national body needs every part working to the edifying of itself in Love. Therefore, let us nurture every gift and see them placed in the body, to see a Church walking in the fulness... with "lived voices" writing the Second Book of Acts before our eyes unto the praise of His Glory!

God bless you all this holiday season, as you give gifts to your loved ones, remember and appreciate and use the gifts that God is giving too... Shalom!

From the Book of Acts in Our Day

Testimony by Brother Tim Pruitt

DREW IS THE GRANDSON OF PASTOR TIM (LEFT) & SISTER KAREN PRUITT AND SON OF BETHANY & MICHAEL DEXTER.

Our grandson, Drew Dexter was not crawling or walking at 12 months. He turned one year old in February and his paediatrician was concerned because he was not crawling or walking so she sent him to Shriners Children's Hospital for crippled children for an examination. The doctor's report and x-ray showed his hip was under developed. At our family camp in May of 2015, Bethany had her children in bed and was watching them by baby monitor the night of the prayer line. When she went through the prayer line, Bro. Ron Spencer told her to go get her baby - he had just seen him in a vision walking. She ran and got him and he was prayed for that night and we believed for complete healing. Although shortly thereafter, he would stand around the furniture and even took a few steps he was not yet able to crawl or walk but was very weak in his hips and legs.

August 10, 2015 was on Monday and my wife Karen did not get up when I did that morning. It was unusual, but I simply thought she was tired from the day before and so I thought I would let her sleep in. (My daughter Bethany and family are living with us temporarily while they are building a home.) Later that morning, my daughter came down to the barn where I was doing chores and said you better come check on mom because something is wrong.

Karen first thought she had a terrible neck pull that was causing an unbelievable headache in the back of her head - one like she had never had before. I sent her to a chiropractor who adjusted her neck but by late afternoon there was no improvement and she could not focus her eyes. Her vision was blurred and she had completely lost her left peripheral vision. Realizing something terribly was wrong, I took her to the emergency room at a local hospital. They did a CT scan and diagnosed her with a stroke or a brain bleed. She was then rushed by ambulance to the large University hospital in Shreveport Louisiana.

I gathered my family together to pray (I have 4 very godly believing children and believing spouses) and I told them that we are believers and that's what we do, we believe! We have been trained for this moment and we will not fear, for fear is not of God and it will not do one bit of good to worry or fear. Then I spoke prophetically and said she will be in the intensive care tonight and in a regular room tomorrow night and she will be released to our home on Wednesday. It happened just as I said.

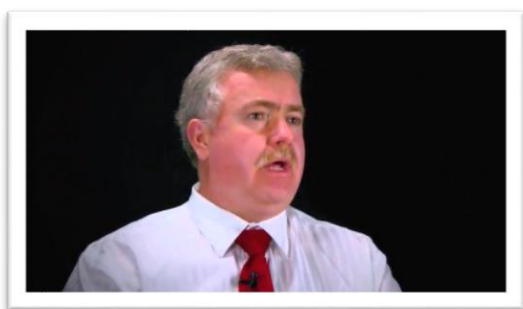

After coming home from the hospital, she had to be helped to the toilet and helped to the shower. One morning during the following week, she was in her bed feeling depressed and sorry for herself and wondering about her future when the presence of the Lord came down into the room and lifted her spirit until a praise went forth from her lips unto God! At the same time, the baby Drew (who is living with us) stood and raised up upon his feet and began walking all through the house. Bethany took Drew back to Shriners hospital and the doctors and X-ray showed a perfectly normal hip for a 18 month old. No need for any follow up visits!

On the following Monday, God spoke to me and said that Wednesday night's service would be a night of deliverance. I went forth in His Name proclaiming that. A man from 7 hours away called by phone crying, desiring deliverance. Speaking prophetically, I told him to be in church Wednesday night as we would have a deliverance service.

My wife's blood pressure began rising and was spiking severely. Concerned, I took her to the doctor on Wednesday morning and he prescribed blood pressure medicine. We went to the pharmacy and had it filled and I gave her one pill before noon. That evening, I announced to our family that no one would stay home with her but that we would all attend church – that people went to church on cots in Bro. Branham’s meetings – so I was taking her to church for deliverance. I took her to church with pillows and a blanket and put her in my study to lay in a recliner during service. The service lasted from 7PM until midnight. Bro. Wayne Lawson was visiting and ministered for us that night. After he preached, I called a prayer line and together we prayed for the sick and needy. The prayer line went on for 3 hours and God gave mighty deliverances. One young teenage girl came up asking for her brother’s salvation. He had left the church and strayed from God, playing in rock bands, using alcohol and other sinful vices. The Spirit of God struck this young man while at home and fear came upon him and he drove to the church in his night clothes and came running to the altar! I have since baptized him in the Name above all names, the Name of the Lord Jesus Christ. When I felt the unction of the Holy Spirit, I took my wife from the back office where she was lying in a recliner and brought her in the prayer line – she stood on her feet praising God until midnight. The headaches were gone! Her eyesight restored. There has been no need for blood pressure medicine since! I check it two times a day and it has been perfect! A follow up visit to an eye doctor revealed that there was no sign of any damage! He exclaimed over and over, “This is marvellous”! The man who drove 7 hours to church that night and was gloriously delivered and his wife was healed too. He then drove all night back home and went to work the next day!

This is not only happening here; it is happening elsewhere too. In recent months, Bro. Doug Hill fell dead in Bro. Ron Spencer’s church and was raised up by the power of God. In a late summer meeting in South Carolina, Bro. Ron Spencer (pictured left) prayed for a little girl with club feet in a wheel chair. His son, Bro. Andrew Spencer told me personally that his dad had preached and God was moving among the people with great rejoicing! Andrew had helped his dad out of the tent meeting to the car for he was exhausted and someone asked him to return to the tent and pray for the child. As they prayed the feet straightened out and she jumped from the chair and walked up and down the aisle. Bro. Ron turned to the child’s mother and said, “You have a greater need, you need to give your heart to God!” The woman repented and surrendered her life to God.

Don’t let anyone tell you that Jesus is not still the High Priest for He can be touched by the feelings of our infirmity! He is only waiting for someone to believe! Who is this appearing among us? The prophet asked Who is THIS Melchisedec? Who is this High Priest?

« 175 † Now, if that was Him yesterday, and the way He acted, to prove that He was among the people, the Messiah promised; and that’s the way He identified Himself, and promise by the Bible, He would do the same thing now; wouldn’t He, wouldn’t He have to do the same thing?

176 You say, “Did He say about healing the sick?” Yeah!

The Hebrews, the Bible that I just read from, said that, “Jesus Christ now is our High Priest that can be touched by the feeling of our infirmities.” How many knows that true? [Congregation says, “Amen.”--Ed.] The Bible said that. “He’s the High Priest now that can be touched by the feeling of our infirmities.” Then if He’s the same High Priest that He was then, how would He act now? He would have to act the same way He did then, if He’s the same High Priest. Now, you might...

I’m not your High Priest. You might touch me, and it’d be just like touching your husband, or your brother, or whatmore, a man.

650221E WHO.IS.THIS.MELCHISEDEC_ JEFFERSONVILLE.IN V-5 N-10 SUNDAY_

« 177 † But you let your faith touch Him, and watch what happens. Now, if I be God’s servant and have told you the Truth, God will vindicate that to be the Truth. And that would prove that Jesus Christ is a living tonight, standing here. Is that right? [Congregation says, “Amen.”--Ed.]

Now, you have faith, just one side at a time, one side. You have faith out there. I better stay at the microphone here, because they can’t hear me.

178 Somebody just look up to God, and say, "God, that man don't know me. He knows nothing about me. I'm a perfect stranger to him. But let my faith touch You, Lord. And You know what's the matter with me, Lord. You know all about me. You know who I am, the same as You knowed who Peter was, same as You knowed Nathanael, as You knowed what was wrong with the woman with the blood issue. And this man tells me that You're 'the same yesterday, today, and forever.' Then, Lord, let my faith touch You."

And if He'll do that, and infallibly prove Himself here, how many of you will believe Him with all your heart; if He'll do it at least one, or two, or three people, for a--for a witness? [Congregation says, "Amen."--Ed.] God bless you.

« 182 † Now, there is a woman, and she recognizes now that something has happened. That Light is hanging right over her. She is setting right here, green sweater on, or something. I don't know the woman. I suppose we are strangers to one another. That is right. Do you believe that God... You're--you're in need of something, and you believe that God can reveal to me what your trouble is? And if He does, then you know it'll have to be a supernatural power, because I don't know you. And it'll have to come through supernatural.

Depends upon what you think it is. You can take your side with the priests, call it "the devil," or you can take the side with the believer and call it "God." Ever which you believe, that's where your reward will come from.

183 If God will reveal to me your trouble, will you accept Him as your--your atonement for that trouble? I don't know what the trouble is. But I know, and you know, that something is going on.

184 Now, now just let me tell you how you're feeling, and then you'll know; a real warm, sweet, comfortable feeling. I'm looking right straight at It. It's that Light, amber Light hanging from the woman.

And the lady is suffering with a trouble in her stomach. It's a kind of a growths, like, in her stomach. She is not from here. [The sister says, "Right."--Ed.] No. You're from away from here aren't you? That's right. You're from Wisconsin. Is that right? Sure. Now you are healed. Your faith has made you whole.

185 Now tell me Who the woman touched? I'm twenty-five yards from her. She touched Jesus Christ, the High Priest. Do you believe that? [Congregation says, "Amen."--Ed.]

WHO IS THIS THAT IS WALKING AMONG US. TRULY IT IS THE RESURRECTED ONE! JESUS CHRIST THE SAME, YESTERDAY, TODAY AND FOREVER!

REFUGE

Lord, let me hear from You today
soften my heart to yield I pray,
Let not the world and all its charm drown out thy voice and lead me to harm.

For in my heart I surely know-- to only You my soul belongs... not to men, or earthly fame,
not for worldly treasures or earthly gains.

Lord, remind me of my true home not made of any rock, wood or stone, but lying beyond where the eyes could not see-- in heavenly places with you I will be.

I know one day I will walk through the great beyond, beyond the blue-- where I could finally behold thy face... and thank you for your mercy and your grace.

Thy grace which hath transformed my life, covered me with your blood to become a worthy sacrifice...
My Lord, no words could ever express and my heart doth overflow with gratefulness.

Lord Jesus Christ, My Lord and King worthy of all the praise my mouth could sing just let me sit at thy feet I pray and hear from You from day to day.

Until the last setting of the sun shall come and the last trump hath sounded on...
I will at last rise and walk to Zion way beyond the blue horizon.

Support: needed Pangasinan

November 16, 2015

Good day brother Andy.

Greetings in the name of the Lord Jesus Christ.

Firstly, I would like to thank you for all the goodness and hospitality you and the fellow brethren there in New Zealand showed us. It's such a joy being with you all during our stay in New Zealand. I just hope and pray that we see each other again, even here in the Philippines.

Brother, I am very sorry my very late report on typhoon Lando or Koppu and the damages of structures, houses and farms, including uprooted fruit trees, flooded rice and vegetable farms it has caused.

I have to consult our fellow ministers about this and requested them to submit some pictures and reports concerning the extent of the damage caused by that typhoon ...

Pictures of some houses of the brethren in various parts of Pangasinan.

Note: Several structures and houses of some brethren which were damaged were already repaired have no pictures taken before they were repaired.

An Endtime Church in Urdaneta City, Pangasinan with its plywood walls warped due to heavy rains. The church was flooded and a portable amplifier and a few instruments were damaged.

I have some pictures of few churches and houses damaged but most of the damaged houses and structures were already demolished and/or repaired and no pictures were taken just after the typhoon. It was already three (3) weeks after when I informed them about a possible financial help coming from the international End time community. I opened your BNL only after we returned back from New Zealand. During the typhoon, nobody dared to go outside their residences to take some pictures as there might be some flying roofs and other things that might hurt them.

The damage incurred by the typhoon was heavy in livelihood and in agriculture. Tens of hectares of rice fields and some vegetable farms of our brethren were heavily damaged ...

An Endtime Church in Burgos, Pangasinan moderately damaged by the the typhoon Lando and the roofing of a house of one believer at the back of the church

The whole roofing of the parsonage of an Endtime Church in Mabini, Pangasinan was blown by the the typhoon Lando causing the furniture inside soaked in water. Above is the church's mess hall made of bamboo and cogon grass heavily damaged.

No pictures were taken before the farms were harvested and/or cultivated again. A hectare of rice land would normally gain, at least, 100 sacks but most of them only harvested 20-30 sacks. And most brethren who are farmers rely on loans to finance their farming. There is no subsidy coming from the government.

Again brother, thank you for having you as our brother in the endtime message.

God bless you,

Brother Manny

The Chinese King James Version Bible

A Triumph and a Treasure

The development of this Chinese King James Bible is the result of the careful and prayerful cooperation by many. Believers in China noticed that the existing Chinese “Union Bible” contained many differences from the Bible Brother Branham quoted. They recorded the differences as they came across them. They also discovered that a group of denominational Christians in Hong Kong had noticed some omissions in the “Union Bible”, and had attempted a translation. In 2011, Bible Believers, taking this version as a starting point, began working to improve it. The first revision was finished in 2012, but the Bible is no normal book; accuracy is paramount. A review by many eyes was necessary to create a version not only worthy of the original English King James Version, but also worthy of the many believers who would depend on it for Spiritual guidance.

Over the next two years the team reviewed the entire draft at least three more times, cover to cover, consulting also with native English speakers to be certain of the sense of each passage. Still not complete, the draft was sent for review to a larger team of native Chinese speakers. The King James Version was placed side by side with the Union Bible, and carefully reviewed. More than 20 believers examined the draft, including Pastors, Ministers, Message Translators, University English Teachers who believe the Message, and other Believers both in China and North America. Every person involved was a Message Believer. Deep respect for the timeless Truth of the scriptures dominated the atmosphere.

The final draft that emerged was not rushed, but was bathed in prayer, and was reviewed by many reverent, sanctified eyes. Knowing they were handling the spiritual lifeline of millions of future readers, the process was allowed to come to full maturity. Truly the making of the Chinese King James Bible was a team effort, and the final result can be received with confidence that the utmost care has been taken to deliver the most accurate rendering possible.

For final publishing, it was decided to place the Union Bible and the Chinese King James Version side by side in one volume, providing the reader with full disclosure of what has been altered and where. Readers will see that where the Union Bible was in agreement with the King James Version, its language has been left untouched. Interestingly, this was also the policy of the English King James translators of 1611, who modified the Bishop's Bible only where necessary (see Historical Note below).

A government approved printer

HISTORICAL NOTE:

When the translators for the English King James Bible convened in 1604, it was the culmination of a process. A group of believers known as the Puritans had become increasingly unsatisfied with the “Bishop's Bible,” then in use, finding flaws in it, and crying for reform both of it, and of the whole Church of England. This pattern has repeated in China.

The Bishop's Bible, like other Bibles of the time, was based largely on the translation of one man, William Tyndale, and his effort was inspired by the earlier work of John Wycliff. Though these men were anointed for their work, no single individual had sufficient perspective to produce the kind of Bible translation the masses were crying for.

The King James Version ended up being the work of 47 scholars, working for 7 years, commissioned to carefully review every sentence, phrase, and word, for both accuracy and prose. The translators did not make a new translation from the very beginning. The words of prior English Bibles rang loudly in the ears of churchmen, and these versions were consulted to maintain harmony of style. The King James Version ended up being a revision of many earlier English Bibles. It is claimed that over 90% of the final language is pure Tyndale, an astonishing compliment to his work, but the revision and correction of the other 10% was indispensable.

Though not intentional, the development of the Chinese King James Bible had many similarities.

We are grateful to be able to include some articles from the BFCR newsletter November 2015 in this issue.

has been selected for the initial publication, and we are happy to announce that the Chinese King James Bible is off the press and ready for use!

The release of the Chinese King James Bible is truly a triumph of faith and cooperation, a treasure that every Chinese believer may welcome with joy. The Union Bible New Testament is a translation based primarily on only TWO ancient manuscripts, and has many omissions. But the King James Version is based on the agreement of over 5000 ancient manuscripts. Finally, a full 400 years after the English King James version was released, the Chinese people have available to them in their own language ALL the words that have been traditionally handed down to the Protestant church.

The success of the English King James Bible has been legendary, as God poured out a blessing upon it that placed it in the center of every spiritual revival in the English speaking world for the next 400 years. We hope and expect the same will be true in China. The King James Bible was the choice of William Branham, placing him as the latest in a long stream of anointed ministers who made the same choice.

"I'm satisfied to take the King James...It's waved the storms longer than any translation yet, and I just believe it that way."

Israel and the Church, 53-0325

Praise be to God that now the Chinese speaking people have their very own copy of the most anointed Bible version ever produced.

The first Bibles from the Chinese printing press

From the Desk of Brother Ed Byskal...

Dear Friends:

I am delighted to announce to you that the new King James Version of the Chinese Bible is now completed. This Bible is unlike ANY Bible on earth and is truly a Triumph and a Treasure!

Allow me to share just a very brief background of this indescribable Spiritual Event.

The incredible achievement of this Chinese King James Version of the Bible is most unique in every way largely because it is solely the work of the most dedicated Believers I have ever been privileged to work with.

In recent years, as the Message began to spread into China, it became evident to the Believers that their Union Bible in many instances did not compare with what Brother Branham was reading from the King James Version English Bible.

The Believers then began to meticulously diarize all errors and omissions. It became increasingly evident that something HAD to be done; the people of China have a right to an accurate Bible. A decision was taken to undertake the painstaking task of providing all Chinese-speaking people of the world, with the most accurate King James Version of the Holy Bible.

With great joy and hearts filled with thanksgiving to God, we can now officially announce to you that these Bibles are now printed and available to the public.

THERE'S MORE...

A Bible App has also been completed and is available to read on your Android hand-held device. Soon it will be available for computer. I am overjoyed to announce that Bible verses Brother Branham used or referred to have been identified, and with just a tap of your finger you may go instantly to any and every message where Brother Branham referred to any given scripture and read what the Prophet of God said about that scripture.

Simply put, God's vindicated Prophet becomes the commentary of this Bible.

Bible Believers invites you to rejoice with us at this milestone event. We trust that God will use the labors of all who have sacrificed so much to complete and present this labor of love to the Bride Body of Jesus Christ.

God bless you,

Brother Ed Byskal

Receiving the Bread of Life

L to R: Bro. Lisan, Bro. Moges, Bro. Bus, Bro. Yidenek, Bro. Nat, Bro. Timothy

Baptism of Bro. Gashaw

Sister Marta happily working at her cafe

And Peter, fastening his eyes upon him with John, said, Look on us. And he gave heed unto them, expecting to receive something of them. Then Peter said, Silver and gold have I none; but such as I have give I thee: In the name of Jesus Christ of Nazareth rise up and walk. (Acts 3:4-6)

One bright morning, Brother Busobozi (Brother Bus) had an appointment to meet someone but because the person could not make it, Brother Bus along with Brother Moges decided to check at the post office where two boxes of Message books from End Time Message Tabernacle in Edmonton, Canada had arrived for him to pick up. This was the second time to pick up such Message materials, but this time Mr. Berhanu, the post officer, can't help but ask what they came to receive. Brother Moges answers him, "Megebu" interpreted to mean "Food" which he later clarified to the man as "the bread of life." Excited, the man asks to receive some messages, which Brother Bus is happy to give to him. Mr. Berhanu then introduced his son, Million, to Brother Bus over the phone.

As a result, Million who is a young Presbyterian theologian in his twenties, together with Theodore, a highly educated man and lay leader of the currently unofficial Presbyterian Church in Ethiopia, meet with Brother Bus during a two week period. Both hear about the End Time Message for their first time; The Godhead, Original Sin, Predestination, Church Ages, Malachi 4, The Holy Ghost among others were topics of discussion during the time of their meetings. They were on the verge of being convinced that it is the Truth, however, they could not make the decision because then it was a great price for them to pay. Not only on the part of the finances but also on their doctrine of Hyper Calvinism that gave them liberty to do whatever they pleased in life because salvation is by grace and not by works. Pray for these two men that God may continue to reveal Himself to them.

Meanwhile; through these two men, there was a third man whose name is Nat, an Eritrean who was part of the fellowship of the Presbyterian Church but was forced to dig deeper into the Word after hearing Brother Bus expound the present Truth. He was compelled to borrow a small player of the Message from Brother Bus so as to hear the voice of the End Time Prophet.

Nat, being an Eritrean refugee couldn't get a job because it is illegal for a refugee to be employed in Ethiopia. He related to Brother Bus how he could not take care of his wife and several children due to this ordeal. Touched, Brother Bus felt to ask him if he believed in prayer (the Presbyterian Church doctrine he has been attending believes days of miracles is past) and Nat agreed. This compelled Brother Bus to tell him that he wished he could help his family with money but since he did not have it, he should take as much as he can - Pray that God will "create" a job for him, and that it would be a sign for him that the Message he has been listening to is TRUE. Without hesitating, Nat joined his hands to Brother Bus and they prayed that God would create a job for him. Within two days, Nat called to say that God had given him a job. Praise the Lord! Since then, Nat has decided to leave his former church and attend with the believers of the Message.

In the May 2015 Believers Faith Challenge Update, a testimony was given about Sister Fre; an unusual person who contacted Brother Bus. She has been growing steadily and recently witnessed to a workmate named Gashaw, a former wizard who also invited his recently made contact Lisan to the fellowship. Gashaw had never been baptized, while Lisan was immersed in "Jesus" Name for his "salvation" while working in Djibouti. But when they heard Brother Bus expound the Word, Lisan exclaimed that he wanted to be identified with the fullness of Christ in Christian baptism and both of them were baptized in the Name of the Lord Jesus Christ. Glory to God! Both now attend the work in Addis Ababa.

Reports about Sister Marta, the lady that had been a street girl for over 10 years have been given in the past. The May update about her was that through the support of Bible Believers, Brother Bus has now been able to help her get a small café started in the lower part of Addis Ababa city. She is now very happy and we are hoping she can now be able to take care of herself from this small business going forward as she grows spiritually. We solicit your

According to Brother Bus, things have changed much from the time he and Sister Rebecca first landed in this historic land in early 2013. From practically no one to fellowship with, there is now a regular number of about 15 that come to Brother Bus' house to hear The Message of the Hour. Out of about 25 baptized over that time, 11 live in Addis Ababa and can make it to the fellowship. Travel and outreach are frequent. Brother Bus just arrived back from the city of Mekelle, a trip of 1200 kms (750 miles) where two more were baptized. Before the baptisms, Sister Helen, a new convert called the man that baptized her previously in Addis and asked him questions:

Sis. Helen, "Is Father a Name?"

The man, "No!"

"That means Son, and Holy Ghost are not names either?" said Sis. Helen.

The man, "Sure."

Sis. Helen, "Why then did you baptise me in the titles and not the Name? Is trinity biblical?"

The man, "I can answer that, but can you stand it?"

Sis. Helen, "If it's the truth, I will..."

The man, "Trinity is not biblical but a doctrine of the Church..."

Sis. Helen, "In that case, I will today be baptised in the NAME" and she hung up.

There is more good news to report, that after waiting for approximately four months, the Government has accepted the application for a license to operate as a legal church ministry in Ethiopia! Brother Bus reports that after a few more pending processes, the license will be ready by the end of October. This license will enable the church to have a publicly recognized location as well as freely conduct outreaches throughout the land.

The work of Brother Bus and the translation work within Ethiopia is fully supported by Bible Believers. Your support and prayers are having a huge impact in the previously unreached country of Ethiopia.

The Believers enjoying fellowship after a service

Good news from the translation work project. Brother Abebe from the city of Adama has rejoined the translators to translate the Message of the Hour into the Oromic language. Brother Moges, the main Oromo translator writes:

"Christian greetings to all worldwide believers of the End Time Message. This is Brother Moges Engida from the land of Habesha, Ethiopia. My origin is from a small village around Shashamane, to the south of the capital, Addis Ababa. I'm a lawyer by profession, but I'm not deep in to that now. The impossible is possible by God; I have never imagined in my life that I will be a Christian like this. I used to follow orthodox religion which I inherited from my family and was blinded thinking it was absolute truth.

There was a friend of mine at university whom I lived together with for five consecutive years; we used to eat, study, sleep etc. together through all the five years. Witnessing to me about his Protestant church was his day-to-day activity and I didn't even show willingness to go and visit his church. After God met me in a miraculous way and made me His child, it was at that time when I realized that God was keeping me all the way to reveal to me HIS TRUE WORD through the End Time Message of the Prophet. Thanks to His precious Name, since then I'm not only a true follower of Christ but also a translator of the Message in to Afan Oromo, which is the dominantly spoken language, even if it's not the official language, in the country.

After I found out and believed it is the True Message of the Hour, I felt to translate and reach out to this large population so as to save their souls, as they are in darkness. There is nothing more satisfying than serving God, and when I think of reaching out to the Afan Oromo speakers through my translation work, it makes me really happy and more courageous to strive hard, because this Message of the Hour is precious and it's going to shake the whole country. So far I have translated the tracts That Women Jezebel, and The Godhead, and the messages The Great Harlot, Mark of the Beast, The Rapture, and The Hand Writing on the Wall. I am currently finishing The Evening Messenger and God willing I am going to start translating The Church Age Book.

Interpreting at the pulpit when the preacher ministers during every service is also my little contribution. Generally, I'm fully engaged in the work of the translation leaving aside my profession as a lawyer. So my polite prayer request to all believers of the End Time Message around the world is for God to give me strength and mercy. Shalom."

Many believers know the dangers of social media—the time it consumes, the doors it opens to bad influences, predatorial people, the unsanctified conversation and advertisements. Also deceptive is the fact that it replaces real relationships with “feel good” internet relationships, in which a person can only reveal their good points, and hide their weaknesses.

But recently, Believers in Croatia turned Facebook on its head by harnessing it to introduce the End Time Message to millions. Brother Jonathan Lerga points out that in the Second Exodus, Jesus Christ preached to the multitudes in hell, but in our age, hell has enlarged itself and is all around us. Today, in the third Exodus, we can preach to hell right outside our front door—or from our own personal computer.

For several years, the Lerga family tried to witness one person at a time, by Facebook contacts. In 2014, they created a Facebook profile for Brother Branham, and secured paid promotion from Facebook. The results are almost unbelievable. Since 2014, they have received 4,169, 592 hits to the page, in the former Yugoslavian countries alone, and ads were displayed 212,415,803 times. Based on this success, they started promoting on Google, and their ads have popped up on screens and smartphones 14 million times. In google searches, their average position is first or second, based on hundreds of key words such as “Jesus”, “Bible” and even “Pope” or “Catholic.”

From these many seeds, there has been a harvest. Converts have been baptized, a new church has been established, and the new believers have translated new Messages into the local languages. This was all done by local believers at a low cost, without any sponsorship from abroad needed. This is just one of the many ways the Message is going out to this generation, fulfilling the words of the Prophet,

“...the end shall be,
after this Message has gone to all the world.”

61-0108 Revelation
Chapter Four, 3

Similar to this work is the Living God Website (www.alivinggod.com) moderated by Brothers Tim Pruitt and Jason Watkins. One of the great strengths of this site is it displays the miraculous works of God TODAY. Testimonies of miracles abound on this site, giving believers everywhere the opportunity to share them with their unbelieving friends and family. It is no longer necessary to only point back to the Ministry of the Prophet, the Living God website provides proof that the same God is at work today, in the ministry of His Bride. No one church or movement owns this site, it is dedicated to all believers, and provides God's irrefutable answer to the critics.

For seekers who would not take the time to listen to an entire Message, the site also offers summary overviews of some of the main Message doctrines. These are powerful tools that can be utilized in personal witnessing efforts. For those on Facebook, the Living God Website also has an associated Facebook page.

As the Apostle Paul preached on Mars Hill, the “open forum” of that day, (Acts 17:22) these outreaches take the Message directly to where the people are.

"Sing praises to God..." Psalm 47:6

It has been a while since we've had a national youth camp in New Zealand. A youth camp is planned for early March 2016, God willing.

The youth camp will be open to any unmarried believers between ages 12 and 35. Although this is called a "national" youth camp, it would certainly be open to visitors from Australia and elsewhere. Attendance in all cases is subject to the consent of your pastor.

The overall aim for the camps are:

- To touch the souls of young people in a relaxed setting outside of church and the good work that local pastors and ministers are doing.
- To create an environment where young people can spend time with their peers and establish long term friendships with others of like precious faith.
- And of course, also to have some fun activities together.

Brother Daniel White from Australia will be the guest speaker.

Dates: 11 to 14 March 2016

Location: Inglewood, Taranaki at the Vertical Horizon Camp Site (<http://verticalhorizon.co.nz/>).

Cost: $140 per person. Family max: $420.

Note that the cost may go down, depending on whether we are able to receive financial support from churches or individuals.

RSVP: Completed camp forms need to be received by Wednesday, 13 January 2016

If any churches or individuals are in a position to provide financial support, this would be welcomed in order to keep the cost down to the individuals and families. Your support in prayer would also be highly appreciated.

For any enquiries or to request an application form, please email youthcamp@rapturinggrace.co.nz or make contact with brothers Alray Robertson or Ben Gloyne.

Please also note that at this stage it is the intention to have another youth camp later in 2016 in order to get some momentum going. This youth camp is planned to happen over labour weekend (21 to 24 October 2016).
